

BIOGRAPHY

Education and Experience:

Argenis Taveras Sabala has served as the pastor of Iglesia Biblica de Juan Tomas in the Dominican Republic since 2010. While there he also served as the high school principal of the Fountain of Life Christian School. He was educated at Indiana Wesleyan University where he earned his Masters of Education in Christian Education in 2016. Pastor Sabala committed his life to Christ in August of 2001. He says of ministry, “I think that the ministry is not mine, it is God's. In His grace, He uses us to show His power and grace to others. He does not need us to do His will, but by His mercy He allows us to participate along with Him.”

Family:

Pastor Sabala's partner in ministry is his wife, Rose Mery, to whom he has been married 14 years. She has been active working in ministry such as leading women's ministry in their church and she has also translated Christian materials from English to Spanish. Together they have three children, a 13 year old girl, a 9 year old boy, and an 8 year old girl.
